It is likely soon the scholars of the rural schools of Columbiana county won't be able to play truant any more than the boys and girls of the town schools without being compelled to answer to a truant officer. A movement which had its origin at a meeting of the presidents of the county boards of education in Lisbon recently, is now on foot to employ a county truant officer who will be made an officer of the juvenile court of the county and given all the power and authority of such officer. All the townships in the county are in favor of the proposition. It has been suggested that C. A. Bick of Lisbon, former deputy sheriff, be secured for the place.
